PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2	Special Condition # 24: You shall abstain from the use of alcohol and illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, (including Breathalyzer), as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six (6) tests per month of each type, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: George Davis was arrested for driving under the influence on December 7, 2014, in Salem, Oregon, in violation of mandatory condition #2 and special condition #24.

According to Salem Police Department report number SMP14051133, George Davis was pulled over after the arresting officer noticed that he was driving erratically. Mr. Davis informed the officer that he had been drinking and admitted to consuming six beers. He submitted to a field sobriety test. The offender showed visual signs of impairment, according to the tests given. Mr. Davis was placed under arrest without incident, and submitted to a breath test. The breath test indicated that Mr. Davis had an average blood alcohol content of .15, nearly twice the legal limit.
